

ViewWise: The Document Management Choice for Financial Institutions!

Computhink provides Document Management / Content Management Solutions for Financial Services Firms. Computhink's ViewWise streamlines business processes, improves customer service, reduces costs, and helps ensure compliance.

Financial Institutions such as investment services firms, wealth management, insurance and credit institutions, and mortgage and brokerage firms are all paper intensive environments that need to reduce costs and increase service levels and operational efficiencies, all while complying with various regulatory laws. Such regulatory laws include Graham-Leach-Bliley, SEC 17a-3 and 17a-4, The Patriot Act, Sarbanes-Oxley sections 302 and 404 for public companies, IRS Rev. Proc. 97-22 and NASD 3010 & NYSE 342.

Recognized Accounting Benefits Include:

- Establish a central repository with access security privileges assigned
- Automate business processes and route documents and files for further action
- Apply retention rules to documents to save on data storage and comply with regulations
- Review audit trails for user and document activity performed in the system
- Provide online access of information to branch offices, remote workers, partners, and vendors
- Provide complete document security and disaster recovery
- Reduction of paper, copy and storage costs
- Print, email, and fax right from ViewWise without the need for the native application which saves on license costs
